第4問 Complete the following two conversations by filling in the blanks appropriately. The length of your answer for each blank does not need to correspond with the length of each line.

Conversation A

Marina and Yifei are talking.

Marina: Hi, Yifei. I wanted to ask for your advice. I need to go to London next week for a job interview. What's the best way of getting there?

Yifei: Hmm. What time is your interview?

Marina: 9 am. First thing in the morning.

Yifei: <sup>(1)</sup> _____ . Maybe you should take the high-speed train.

Marina: But the high-speed train is so expensive. <sup>(2)</sup> _____
_____

Yifei: The trouble with the local train is that it's unreliable. <sup>(3)</sup> _____
_____ ?

Marina: I don't have a driving licence, and you never know when there will be a traffic jam.

Yifei: <sup>(4)</sup> _____

Marina: You're right. That's probably the best option. Thanks!

Conversation B

John and Oliver are talking.

John: Hey! I haven't seen you around in weeks — where've you been?

Oliver: You remember I was thinking of buying a car, right? Well, I finally bought one from someone I know and took it for a long drive.

John: And you didn't ask me to come along? _____
(1) _____?

Oliver: You might not feel so envious when I tell you what happened next.
(2) _____ But on the third day it started pouring rain, and I found that the car had a huge leak in the roof.

John: How bad was it? Did it get on the seats?

Oliver: Yeah, and the floor, and the radio, too. Once it stopped raining, it was so humid that I couldn't get it dry. By the next day it was smelling bad.

John: _____?
(3) _____?

Oliver: I just drove back home, miserable. I didn't have enough money for repairs, so I spent the next two weeks trying to fix it myself.

John: And? So now it's okay?

Oliver: _____ So I started a
(4) _____ part-time job to save up some money.
